

CASS 2026 Student Travel Grants (STG)

The IEEE Circuits and Systems Society (CASS) offers Student Travel Support to enable the recipients to present their research work at CASS Flagship Conferences.

Each Call will include a specific set of CASS Flagship conferences based on the conference dates. Each conference will have an evaluation committee who will make the final decisions on the support allocation.

LASCAS 2026 is included in Round 1 of the STG Calls.

Important Dates:

The submission deadline is: January 11, 2026.

Grant winners will be notified by January 29, 2026.

Selection Criteria:

- CASS Membership: Students must be CASS student members at the time of application.
- Paper Acceptance: Students must have had their paper accepted for presentation at the conference they plan to attend. The recipient must attend the conference to present the paper.
- Student Status: Applicants must be an undergraduate or graduate student during the time of the conference.
- Note: A faculty member is required to confirm the nominee's undergraduate or graduate student status. This should be uploaded to the Faculty Letter field on the application.
- Financial Need: Eligibility will also be based on demonstrated financial needs.
- Annual Limit: An individual is only eligible for CASS travel support once per calendar year.

Additional Details:

- The final amount awarded will be based on actual expenses, not exceeding the approved limit, and will follow IEEE's standard travel reimbursement process.
- Self-nominations are allowed.
- Nominations will be reviewed confidentially by the Flagship Conference Evaluation Committees and the CASS Operations Office.
- Late nominations will not be accepted.
- Each conference will only be listed under one call.
